Annual National Juried Show 2018

July 10 – 28, 2018 Entry Deadline: Friday, March 23, 2018

Juror : ROBERT BIRMELIN

"Birmelin's paintings are brilliant in the way they confront us with a variety of urban spaces and surfaces, including human surfaces. His is a toughminded realism--these are not a tourist's pictures. They flatter no one, and are full of psychological as well as material detail." -Donald Kuspit, Artforum

"Robert Birmelin is the magical realist of our mean streets," -Jed Perl, New Criterion, New York Stories.

Robert Birmelin, whose works are in the collections of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, MoMA, and the Whitney Museum, currently has several paintings in a major international group show: The American Dream – American Realism 1945 – 2017, now at the Drents Museum in the Netherlands. Birmelin is represented by the Luise Ross Gallery in New York, where his last solo exhibit was in 2016. He has been the recipient of numerous grants and awards – among them, a National Endowment for the Arts award, a Fulbright, and a Tiffany grant. After receiving his MFA from Yale, Birmelin was a highly respected professor at Queens College of the City University of New York for 24 years.
